

Jill Thompson
Policy Manager
Oregon Health Division, Health Promotion Program

Jill Thompson is the Policy Manager for the Oregon Health Division, Health Promotion Program. Prior to this assignment, she managed the Division's Community and School Tobacco Programs. Jill has been in the public health policy arena for over 15 years, previously working for the American Cancer Society and the Clackamas County Health Department. She has worked at local, state and national levels to develop and pass public policy initiatives to protect reproductive rights, prevent and control cancer and reduce tobacco use. In her current role, Jill manages policy initiatives for Oregon's Health Promotion and Chronic Disease Prevention Programs and oversees the implementation and enforcement of Oregon's Indoor Clean Air Act.
