The National Network on Tobacco Prevention and Poverty (NNTPP) is a program of the Health Education Council. Our mission is to reduce the prevalence of tobacco use among populations of low socioeconomic status.

The National Commission of Correctional Health Care (NCCHC) is a not-for-profit organization that is committed to improving the quality of health care in jails, prisons, and juvenile confinement facilities.

Tobacco Cessation for Correctional Populations: A Health Education Manual

The Guide contains two curriculum Modules: Module One is designed to educate individuals on the health effects of tobacco use; Module Two is a guide for quitting. The curriculum also contains instructions for facilitators, reproducible handouts and a resource section to obtain additional information and materials.
