

Joelle Lester

Joelle Lester is a staff attorney with the Tobacco Control Legal Consortium, a program of the Public Health Law Center. Joelle provides legal technical assistance on a wide range of tobacco control policy issues to public health professionals, attorneys, and advocates around the country. Joelle also staffs the Consortium's FDA Tobacco Project, designed to mobilize the public health community to encourage the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to enact the strongest possible tobacco regulations under the Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act. Joelle educates, coordinates and mobilizes the public health community to engage with the FDA and provides legal technical assistance to public health advocates. Joelle also provides litigation support to defend the federal tobacco regulations against challenges from the tobacco industry.
