

MATT GANNON

Matt Gannon is an Assistant Attorney General in the Tobacco Division of the Iowa Attorney General's office. In this position, he is responsible for oversight and enforcement of Iowa's tobacco laws, including the Smokefree Air Act, sales to underage persons, and matters concerning the Master Settlement Agreement with the major tobacco companies and related legislation. Prior to joining the Attorney General's office, Matt was in practice with Arnold & Porter LLP in Washington, DC. His practice there included counseling clients on legislative and public policy matters, campaign finance and ethics, corporate compliance, and internal investigations. Matt received his JD from the University of Iowa and his undergraduate degree from the University of Notre Dame.
