

Tim Filler, Policy Organizer

Tim Filler is a policy advocacy organizer with experience working with community leaders, coalitions, organizations and concerned citizens to lead or assist in the strategic planning, organization and implementation of successful policy campaigns at national, state and local level.

Filler works on local, state and federal tobacco prevention and other health policy issues for various clients.