

Kurt Fetz, MLS

Kurt Fetz, MLS, is Tobacco Prevention and Cessation Coalition Coordinator for Floyd County, and serves as the grant supervisor for Harrison County. As part of his day to day work, he regularly organizes training sessions and forums for tobacco control staff and the public. He has worked with the Indiana Tobacco Prevention and Cessation Commission of the Indiana State Department of Health as a county coordinator for just over two years, and has been doing community organizing and advocacy work since his undergraduate years, when he began organizing forums for the Indiana branch of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU). Kurt was born and raised in Floyd County, and holds a Master of Liberal Studies from Indiana University.
